Rights Respecting School Councillors

Thank you to all the children who took the time to apply. Applications are being considered and results will be announced in assembly.

Extreme Reading

Thanks to everyone for the wonderful photos and well done to Jake and Jessica Dobson (donkey riding) and Leila Shafiq (a volcano), our winners!

Newsletter border designs

Thank you to Edward Chamberlain in Year 2 for this week's border design.

I need to build up stocks for this year please. Please come to my office and help yourself to a blank border if you would like to see yours in print!

Come Dine With Us

In addition to our tasting session this week, Caterlink are offering parents of children who do not currently have school lunches to enjoy a free lunch at 12.15pm on Tuesday 23 and Thursday 25 September. Please RSVP to Tania in the office if you can make it.

Wick Court - Coach Martin is going

This means that in the week beginning 29th September there will be no 8am Sports Clubs on the Thursday or Friday and no after school football on the Tuesday.

Lost your Reading Folder?

We give every child a free reading bag, reading record and homework folder when they start school. If you lose or damage yours you can buy replacements in the school office.

Trip slips and donations

Thank you to the vast majority of you who have returned both permission slips and contributions. Our deadline is the end of September, and for slips, before your child's first trip. Thank you.

Maths support for parents

The press implies that times tables and formal written methods are a new initiative of this government and its latest national curriculum. Rest assured we, and all schools, have been doing this for years. However, it seems a good time to support parents in understanding how we teach these core skills. So, we will be running parent workshops about the four core calculation methods (addition, subtraction, multiplication and division) in the Shed on Friday mornings later this term from 9-10am. If you would like support understanding how we teach the formal written methods, progressing through all the key steps, please make a note of the dates. We are also working on handy 'fridge posters' of all the key mental maths skills for each year group. Coming home soon!

Friday 7th November - Addition

Friday 21st November - Subtraction

Friday 28th November - Multiplication

Friday 5th December - Division

With best wishes,

Kate Frood and staff.
