Thank you

To Tara Sibert in Nursery for this week's border design.

Save the date!

Thursday 5th February....our annual family BINGO evening with big cash prizes!

Well done!

The bold Year 4 team who went up to Brookfield School after school yesterday to play a football friendly. They won 3 of their 6 games, drew 1 and lost 2. Coach Martin is lining up more Brookfield friendlies - football for Year 4 girls in March and netball for Year 5 and 6 in February. More news to follow...

To Arnold in Year 6 who has had his place confirmed in the national Primary Maths Challenge Finals as he fell in the top 1.5% of the 79,000 entries. He sits it on February 4th. Good luck!

Collecting polystyrene

Coach Martin is planning some block-breaking games with infants! If you have any polystyrene i.e. from packaging around new TVs, white goods etc. please drop it into the school office.

Caribbean artefacts

Year 4 are looking for any Caribbean artefacts to display in their 'Caribbean Corner'. If you have any postcards, objects or materials to add to their display please drop them into Year 4.

Message from Playcentre

'We'd like to remind parents of our Playcentre, which runs from 3.30-6.00pm. There are currently spaces available for all children aged 4 ½ and above. As well as multi-sports (including football, football training, tennis, and a range of fun games) with Coach Lee on Tuesdays and Wednesdays, the staff provide extensive arts and crafts opportunities; hama beads and loom bands, face-painting, table tennis, a Thursday cooking session, indoor games, construction toys, puzzles, board games, and a broad variety of stimulating and enjoyable activities for all children. A daily tea is provided. For further details and prices (including concessionary) please pop in for a chat with Ross or the Playcentre staff anytime from 3.00pm in the main hall, or you can phone or email Tel: 07875 724105/ ross.kenworthy@p3charity.org

2015 calendars!

We have just 30 left...now for sale at £3 from the office!

Breakfast club

A polite reminder that it starts at 8am and not before!

Family BINGO - Thursday 5th February

It starts at 6.30pm and we are usually done by 8pm. Entrance is £3 which buys you 9 consecutive games of BINGO. Pizza, hotdogs, drinks and very special 'BINGO blobber' pens will also be on sale. This is a really fun family event for everyone. Who can forget Evelyn Teague winning two rounds in 2013 including the £30 bonus round! What is the probability of that from a crowd of well over 100?

With best wishes
Kate Frood and staff
