New Valentine's Day and half term Sewing Craft Workshops

Paint'n'pin Craft Club (run by Ivona who runs the after school sewing club for kids at Eleanor Palmer) will have workshops each day over half-term starting Friday 13th February to Tuesday 17th February (inclusive). Each workshop will last 3 hours.

"If your child is between 8 and 18 years old and enjoys making things, then we are sure to have a sewing craft activity that they will love! Lots of fun projects are possible from appliqué cushions, tote bags, pencil cases, bunting, felt greeting cards, stuffed animals, heart key rings, tutus, felt brooches and many more"

For More information and bookings please contact Ivona directly:

Lost Property

This half term's collection will be on display tomorrow. School Council have come up with an idea to have a Sharpie clothes marking stall - indelible ink to write names/initials in clothes labels - so look out for their stand at the school entrance at the start of next half term!

Young Actors Theatre

There is a new flier pinned up outside about a well-established Theatre Club in Islington. I know that this is one strongly supported by ex EP family the Pattens: all three boys have gone on to act on national stage and screen. Mum Celia says "Teaching of a high standard and fun, there's a wonderfully diverse intake, opportunities to perform in productions, singing/dance/acting available, supportive environment with older kids looking out for smaller kids (classes are mixed in age) and excellent administration." If theatre is something your child has a keen interest in, it might be worth a visit? info@yati.org.uk 7278-2101.

Our recent Challenge Partners Inspection Report is now on the home page of the website. Have a lovely half term.

With best wishes,
Kate Froid and staff
