Congratulations!

To us all for a wonderful Summer Festival. What a fantastic day! The weather was perfect, we had so many helpers to set up/tidy up that it was actually fun. With auction payments still coming in, cookbooks being sold, and expenses being settled we don't yet have a final total but we are confident that we will top £9000 if we include the sponsorship from Gap and Winkworths. This is an amazing total, officially the best ever!

Thank you again to our core PTA team of Year 3 parents: Sam, Tamara, Alison, Clara, Julie, SJ, Ayesha and Natasha (and their partners who all did masses too). Their creativity, hard work and sense of good fun drove the whole event and I've lost count of the compliments for the theme, the clever ideas and the decoration.

Thank you to everyone else who put up gazebos, lugged books, cooked, chopped strawberries, washed soft toys and all the wonderful roles in a primary school Summer Fair. Too many to mention. A special thank you to Mary and Rebecca who created the beautiful and unique Eleanor Palmer Cookbook. More are in stock and available for £7. The fantastic bigger size 'Kentish Town Home of the Brave' bags are still available too at £7.

Congratulations to Ladan Ahmed in Year 4 found a wallet at the Heath after Sports Day. She sensibly told Mr G and Linda and then handed it into the Heath Office leaving our contact details. The owner came in the next day with a card and £25 book token for Ladan. He was so grateful and said he never expected to have it returned. As well as lot of money and cards, it had precious photos in. We are very proud of Ladan!

Thank you

To Chanelle Arkley in Year 3 for this week's border design.

Acland Burghley Arts Festival, this Friday July 10th, 4 - 9pm

A chance to celebrate the arts and see fantastic GCSE and A Level art work, at Acland Burghley's Arts Evening. Enjoy Pimms and refreshments, delicious BBQ and food, be entertained and do something arty at one of the drop-in workshops.

And for EP parents, a chance to see the school! I know the new Leadership Team will be in attendance.

With best wishes
