

To continue our commitment to a broad and balanced curriculum with real experiences at the core of topic work

To use data intelligently, to track pupils and respond appropriately to ensure all groups achieve their full potential

To ensure all learning is social, active, engaging and creative

To instil in all our pupils, a determination to do well and a resilience in the face of challenge and failure

Eleanor Palmer School Vision 2016-19

Provide a secure and happy environment where every child is able to participate, succeed and attain the highest possible standards

Respect and value our wider community, its people and environment

Ensure that we are inclusive to all groups in our community, at entry and in our ethos

To deepen understanding and impact of being a Rights Respecting School both locally and globally

To continue to develop and enrich the school site ensuring sustainable development remains the priority

To sustain an extended school day to support parents

To support parents as partners in their children's learning

To invest in our staff development to ensure they all fulfil potential and contribute to school life

To take a leading role in the schools-led 'Camden Learning' company

As a National Teaching School, influence practice across other schools whilst retaining our own high standards and ethos

To take a national lead in models of school-based initial teacher training

Demonstrate leadership, creativity and team working to the benefit of the learning and development of our pupils

Ensure all our pupils benefit from excellent teaching and learning

To inspire in all pupils a love of learning and the confidence and ambition to achieve highly

To maintain our outstanding grade in all areas in all future inspections

To ensure all senior leaders remain strongly connected to the classroom

To maintain our high levels of scrutiny of standards

To be centrally focussed on learning and teaching, constantly developing classroom practice through high quality INSET and coaching

To ensure all staff are developed and mentored to the highest standard
