

ELEANOR PALMER PRIMARY SCHOOL WEEKLY NEWSLETTER
AUTUMN TERM 2018 NUMBER 14
www.eleanorpalmer.camden.sch.uk

Thursday 13th December 2018

Dear Families,

Tomorrow

Reception and Nursery are off to see Room on the Broom at the theatre.

Year 3 are going to A Christmas Carol at the Museum of London.

Events in school next week, the last week of a long term! 17th - 21st December. Other than our 3 festive events, classwork continues as usual keeping things as calm and normal as possible.

NO CLUBS AT 8AM OR AFTER SCHOOL IN THE LAST WEEK OF TERM.

Monday 17th

Our Christmas lunch. Staff and children all eat together!

Tuesday 18th

Home Zone carol singing from 6-7.30 pm!

This is an opportunity to come together as a community, enjoy the fun of singing carols in beautiful candle light in the garden on the corner, warmed by some festive spirit! Mulled wine and carol sheets will be provided. Please bring lanterns, mince pies and other festive snacks! Thank you. So they have an idea of numbers, please RSVP to homezna@gmail.com

Wednesday 19th

At 2pm, we have our annual Christmas Carol Service. This is one of the highlights of the year and gets us in the festive spirit! The dress code is black and red (careful with thick sweaters as it gets HOT!) and poppies welcome, as our theme is Christmas and a commemoration the World War I Armistice centenary.

Doors will open no earlier than 1.45pm or, as soon as all children are safely in position in the hall. Please respect this important routine. There is no early access for any parent.

We will not have room for buggies in the main hall - you will be directed to the rear servery area - and, whilst we hate to exclude babies and small children, we cannot have babies crying and /or toddlers talking. Please make other arrangements for under 3s. We will be collecting for War Child (see below) as you leave.

Afterwards, children may be taken straight home.

Thursday 20th

A calm quiet day....completing all the term's work.

Friday 21st

9.15am Eleanor Palmer's Got Talent! This is an end-of-term school community event to have fun and a chance to raise money for charity. We will have a final (the top three acts) at 2pm and children are asked to bring money in to vote/raise money for charity. Each vote is 50p. Our 2018 chosen charity is War Child. As we have been commemorating the centenary of the World War I Armistice in assemblies, it felt apposite to raise awareness of continued wars and those who continue to suffer. What's more, it's based in Kentish Town on Highgate Road.

Term finishes for the Christmas break at 3.30pm.
